

DESCRIPTION

The weak-side cut play allows for an open layup to present itself through off-the-ball movement on the weak-side of the court.

1. The (4) heads to the opposite elbow to set a screen as the (3) comes to that direction as well.
2. As the screen is set, the (5) flares to the 3-point arc and the (1) passes to the (2), while the (3) cuts diagonally to the hoop.
3. The (2) immediately passes to the cutting (3) for the wide open layup.
